

<input checked="checked" type="checkbox"/>	_____
<input type="checkbox"/>	out of
<input type="checkbox"/>	20

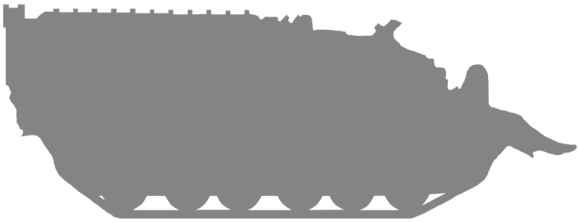

Answer sheet available at the front desk.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE!

A Quiz for all ages

1. What does BARV stand for?
2. The Apprentice College gates on display were originally designed for which Apprentice College?
3. Major Ivan Hirst restarted the production of the Volkswagen Beetle in which German city?
4. How many soldiers did REME have in May 1945?
5. Which goldsmith is REME's patron saint?
6. What error did Corporal Wheatley make when he created the giant REME birth certificate?
7. Compulsory National Service lasted from 1939 until when?
8. What was the range of the Larkspur B47 station radio?
9. Which vehicle on display has a special inbuilt faraday cage?
10. How heavy is the CRARRV?

11. How is the ST4 AKTIV Snow-Trac engine cooled?
12. In Germany what was a pack of Herforder Pils better known as?
13. What was added to the International Half-track to make it more useful to REME?
14. During the First Gulf War, sand damage to the Westland Lynx Helicopter rotor blades reduced flying time from 500hrs to what?
15. Who was REME's first Colonel in Chief?
16. In what year did Captain Jim Fox win an Olympic individual gold medal?
17. What does the Corps motto, Arte et Marte mean to in English?
18. In what year did the REME cap badge change from a laurel wreath with a set of callipers to a horse chained to a globe?
19. What does BATUS stand for?
20. Which gallantry medal was Corporal Miller awarded in 2007?

