

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

REME tour guides

The REME Museum frequently receives requests for guided tours around our wonderful displays. Staff members are normally able to provide these, but there are occasions when this proves difficult and so we are looking for friendly individuals who enjoy talking with members of the public to lead these groups.

Ideally, you will have the following qualities.

- Reliable.
- Fit and healthy (the Museum charges for tours, so we expect them to last for about two hours and represent good value for money).
- Knowledgeable about the Corps and the Museum's displays (applications are particularly welcome from veterans and currently serving personnel).
- Engaging and personable.
- Good public speaker, a sense of humour and able to hold people's attention.
- Able to think on your feet (you never know what questions the public will ask!)

The Museum is open from Tuesday to Sunday inclusively, so we are looking for a number of guides to be able to provide tours on each of these days, if booked.

This is a great way for you to support the Museum and make sure those on the tour really enjoy their visit. Full training and a note pack will be provided. We are also able to provide travel expenses of 30p per mile up to a maximum value of £25.

Please do contact us for a preliminary discussion if you are interested; our email address is enquiries@rememuseum.org.uk, or you can telephone us on 01249 894 869.

We look forward to hearing from you!

The Museum is committed to equality, diversity and inclusion in our employment and volunteering opportunities, and we welcome applications from all members of the community.
